

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

You can no longer hide behind the attacks of 9/11 to push through bills giving ownership of the nation to corporations and faith healers.

The nation is watching and people are waking up to the dangers inherent in media monopolies, as well as the fact that "liberal media" is a myth.
